Is there anything that electric chemistry can't overcome? The past may be gone, but love has a way of holding on in this "thoughtful romance" (School Library Journal) told in alternating Before and After chapters.

The summer before freshman year, Kelsey and David became inseparable best friends—until the night a misunderstanding turned Kelsey into the school joke and everything around her crumbled, including her friendship with David. So when Kelsey's parents decide to move away, she can't wait to start over and leave the past behind. But David's not quite ready for her to leave.

Now it's senior year and Kelsey has a new group of friends, genuine popularity, and a hot boyfriend. Her life is perfect. That is, until David's family moves to town. Old feelings bubble to the surface and threaten to destroy Kelsey's second chance at happiness. The more time she spends with David, the more she realizes she never let him go. As a student, I exactly feel bored to help with reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make a summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just minor students that have reading's internal or real interest. They just do what the professor wants, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing is read significantly. Any student feels that studying is not important, boring, and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. A book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise, words say, many ways to reach China's country. So, this Last Year's Mistake can make you experience more interested to read.
