An Exciting, Thrilling, Complete Western Romance Novel

* No Cliffhanger

Ivy Evans was born and raised on her father's farm and if her father has any say in it, that is where she will stay. But Ivy is hungry for independence. She has grown tired of life as a farm hand and when a position at the local schoolhouse opens up she manages – with her mother's help – to convince her father to let her apply for the job.

A new position means a whole new life for Ivy, who has spent the majority of her life in barns and stables. The chance to work at the schoolhouse means the chance to expand her horizons and meet some new faces! But is the young girl who has been hidden away for most of her life ready for the opportunities this new life will bring?

When Ivy falls in to a marriage of convenience even she begins to doubt the choices she has made...has this young girl from the farm bitten off more than she can chew?

Warning: Readers should be 18 or over due to mature content and language.
