Imani is a beautiful woman, independent and confident. Her dark skin is always complemented by her expert fashion choices, and her personality shows with every garment she wears. Richard is a billionaire with time to spare and a loving heart; he's an expert at heartfelt compliments and sweeping women off their feet. Richard is the type of man who is forever a child and is always searching for the best in other people.

Imani's period hadn't come in a week and she was starting to worry. Her on and off boyfriend of two years, Richard, is the son of a government official and the owner of a designer fashion brand making their net worth well over a billion. Worried about what they might think, like that she wanted money or wanted to marry into the family, Imani hides the fact that she might be pregnant and fails. What does Richard think and do when he finds out Imani is pregnant? How do Richard's parents react to meeting Imani, an African American girl, when Richard introduces her as his girlfriend? What is Imani's response to Richard popping the question: "will you marry me?" What does Richard's Mom have to say about this whole ordeal?
