Hi Friend,

You're about to discover how to best approach your job interview preparation. This compact guide will teach you how to bring out the best of yourself for your job interview.

Coming out of university as a young (or not so young) graduate, the biggest problem you will face is getting a job. Other applicants, a scarce job market and lack of work experience are all reasons why you may find it difficult to get your dream career started.

Most of these reasons will kill or win the job for you in a 20 to 40 minute window: THE JOB INTERVIEW.

Designed for recent graduates, the book is broken into five chapters addressing key areas of preparation such as: how to do effective research, how to dress, how to make a lasting impression, what to say etc.

The chapters are followed by short and highly effective actions points that will turn the theory into practical advice. Reading this book and following through with the techniques will guarantee your job interview success!
