"I loved him...but not like a brother..."

My stepbrother, Steven, had become the man of my dreams. He was everything I could have ever wanted from a man. He was a complete gentleman, sweet, caring, and absolutely gorgeous. I couldn't have asked for anything more.

But Steven and I's relationship had begun to grow out of control. We spent every extra hour that we had with each other. I'd skip out on work just to spend some time with him and he'd do the same for me. Sometimes he would even sneak into my room at night, waking me up with a kiss.

And all of that was fine. Except for the fact that everything we did was in secret. We knew that society would never accept the idea of love between step siblings. So we were forced to live a lie, hiding our feelings for each other from everyone we knew.

But how long could we really keep a secret as big as that?
