A Mate for Lazarus (The Program Book 3) Charlene Hartnady
Standalone Vampire Novel

Have you ever wanted to date a vampire?

Human women required. Must be enthusiastic about interactions with vampires. Must be willing to undergo a stringent medical exam. Must be prepared to sign a contractual agreement which would include a non-disclosure clause. Limited positions available...

Lazarus is the biggest, strongest, the all time scariest of the vampires. He refuses to act like a human because he isn't one, damn it. He'll drink blood, wear his weapons...all sixteen of them and all at once...and growl up a freaking storm if he wants to.

The problem is that the human females within the program are afraid of him. They won't talk to him, let alone allow him anywhere near them. At this rate, finding one to take as a mate is looking more impossible by the day. Then one times firecracker arrives unannounced.

Alexandra is the smallest female he has ever seen. She's definitely the most sexy female he's ever laid eyes on. The most exciting thing of all is that she's not afraid of him...not one little bit. Unfortunately, that doesn't mean that she likes him very much either. She needs his vote to stay in the program and Lazarus plans on making her work for it. On winning her over and using every trick in the book to make it happen.

The story contains strong sexual themes/language and is not intended for readers under the age of 18. Although this is a standalone novel, it would be best enjoyed as a part of the series. No cliffhanger!
