Holsteins on the Serengeti: Strategies, Analogies and Perspectives for the Biology Classroom Robert Orr

High school biology teachers wrestle with content demands and external pressures that have increased markedly over the past two decades. Rob Orr taps his 26 years of teaching experience to offer suggestions regarding teaching styles, grading methods and specific biology content. In a friendly and humorous manner, he presents actual time-tested analogies, classroom and student perspectives, and general syllabus decisions aimed at a first year biology classroom. Whether you're new to teaching, a home-schooler, a seasoned pro, or simply have an interest in general biology, you'll find an abundance of useful ideas and insights to consider in Holsteins on the Serengeti.
