Not illustrated. 1867 Excerpt: ... said bills of exchange for the sum of 8250,000; that at the time the said loan was said to have been obtained not one shilling had been obtained or received by the defendant, as he had represented. This deponent further says that the said letter exhibited by the defendant, purporting to have been written by the Hon. Wm. II. Seward, was not a letter of the said Wm. II. Seward at all, but written and concocted by the defendant and said Baiz, and that all the representations made by said defendant and Baiz were false and untrue, and that said letter was a forgery, and known by said defendants to be so. Deponent further says that said Baiz and Mazuera, conspiring, combining, and confederating together, did charter the said steamship of Messrs. Williams & Guion. for the sum of $10,000, to go to the port of St. Thomas, West Indies, and that said Baiz freighted said vessel under said charter, and proceeded with said vessel, accompanied by said Mazuera, to St. Thomas, where the said Mazuera falsely and fraudulently reported to various parties, other than the plaintiff, that the said Baiz was the owner of said steamer. Deponent further says that said Baiz, from St. Thomas to New York, brought on said vessel a valuable freight, and, as the plaintiff is informed and believes, received for the freight of said steamship to and from St. Thomas, West Indies, upwards of 815,000. Deponent further says that the said Baiz admitted to the plaintiff, as did also the said Mazuera, that the said Baiz at St. Thomas paid to the captain of said steamer Georgia, as charter money and other expenses, the sum of 813,000 and upwards, and that this sum was realized from a portion of the said notes of 835,260 given said Baiz by the plaintiff at St Thomas. Deponent further says that w...
