A magical oracle forces the austere Mr. Taggert to fall in love with his capricious student Duncan.

Duncan's numerous absences caused him to be held back three times. At age 19 his last chance to graduate is in Mr. Taggert's class. He's happy to be there since he's had a crush on the sophisticated disciplinarian for a while. Taggert is shocked when the boy flirts with him. No one's ever looked at the stern man that way before. At first he thinks Duncan is teasing him, but the boy soon makes his feelings clear.

Taggert isn't about to have his career destroyed by a lovesick schoolboy—even one as lovely as Duncan. When Duncan prays to the oracle to intervene the flustered teacher is put in an even more compromising situation!
