Ivy reports for the school newspaper and has great goth style. But when the two girls meet, they are startled to discover that they have a lot in common, from their birthdays to their matching emerald rings. In fact, they're twins, separated at birth, but there's still one big difference between them: Ivy is a vampire! In this wholesome, approachable series, the reunited sisters band together to face the ups and downs of middle school, deal with boys both cute and beastly, and search for the secrets of their past. With story lines that touch on blended families, adoption, and common middle school rites of passage, My Sister the Vampire is a great choice for readers who love the supernatural but aren't up for big scares or teen themes.
