Jessica is an African American up and coming R&B singer. While everyone envies her new celebrity, Jessica feels completely trapped. Her label practically owns her and she sees no chance of escaping...

A plane crash renders her a high profile "missing person" and Jessica is presumed dead...

But she's never felt more alive. After waking up in the Canadian wilderness, Jessica finds herself rescued by a handsome white Canadian named Brody who is good with his hands...

Brody and Jessica immediately hit it off but when Jessica's husband somehow finds her, she's forced to go back to her old life or she'll lose everything.

Despite all of this, Brody is willing to fight for the woman he's fallen in love with, especially after finding out she's pregnant with his child.

Is this a fight Brody will win or will Jessica be trapped in a life she hates forever?

Take a peek inside to get a taste of the action...

This novel contains a bonus preview at the end that you definitely won't want to miss.

Author's Warning:

This bwwm pregnancy romance is for mature audiences 18+ only. If the idea of a gorgeous, strong black female celebrity falling for an older white man troubles you then read no further. This story is guaranteed to help you stay warm as the weather cools down... You won't want to miss it.
